

MEMORANDUM

017-7703-03/1

June 28, 1994

TO: PROJECT ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEMBERS

FROM: ELAINE ARCHIBALD, ARCHIBALD & WALLBERG CONSULTANTS

SUBJECT: CALIFORNIA URBAN WATER AGENCIES, STUDY OF DRINKING WATER QUALITY IN DELTA TRIBUTARIES--AGENDA AND MATERIALS FOR JULY 7, 1994, PAC MEETING

The Project Advisory Committee (PAC) meeting is scheduled for July 7, 1994, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the California Urban Water Agencies (CUWA) office located at 455 Capitol Mall, Suite 705, Sacramento. Included for your review prior to the PAC meeting are:

- Meeting agenda. Please call me if you would like to add any other items to the agenda.
- Revised project schedule. The project is currently about six months behind the original schedule for a number of reasons. I have revised the schedule to show the expected schedule for the remainder of the Phase I project.
- Draft Technical Memorandum No. 3--Mass Loading Methodology. Please review this memorandum prior to the meeting. A good portion of the meeting will be devoted to a discussion of the mass loading methodology and preliminary results. PAC members will be asked for advice on how much further to proceed with the mass loading calculations.
- Draft Technical Memorandum No. 4--Pesticides. We will discuss the results of our review of information on pesticides occurring in the Delta tributaries and the Delta and the implications for drinking water quality.

The PAC members will be asked to provide direction to the project team on the following items:

1. Further analysis using the mass loading methodology.
2. Do you want the project team to develop recommendations for monitoring programs to fill some of the existing data gaps?
3. Do you want the project team to proceed with the risk analysis portion of the project?
